Sensation Attends Break of Large Lincoln Avenue
Water Line

CALL FIRE DEPARTMENT

Water instead of fire was the cause of the Charleroi fire department being called out about 1 o'clock this morning. Members of the family of Attilio Danesio, living in a house on the upper side of Lincoln avenue between Twelfth and Thirteenth streets were rudely awakened this morning about 1 o'clock by ice cold water pouring in at the windows and over them in their beds. Not knowing what else to do they turned in a fire alarm.

The fire department quickly responded and found that a 10-inch water main in front of the house had burst so that a stream of water was directed against the side of the Danesio house. The water was quickly turned off, but not before it has done considerable damage. The water struck the side of the house, breaking out the windows and washing out the foundation from under the house. The first floor collapsed and stoves, beds, tables, chairs and the rest of the furniture were tumbled in a mass under the house. The water pressure was so great inside that the front wall was bulged.

One woman in telling of the affair this morning said she awoke and jumped out of bed. She no sooner placed her feet on the floor than she was knocked down by the water. She thought that the house must be on fire and the firemen had turned the water into the house. Crawling to the back of the house she broke out a window, crawled out to the porch roof and leaped to the ground.

The water main cracked for several feet. The crack however did not open up wider than a quarter of an inch. The water coming through the narrow slit had tremendous force, owing to the heavy pressure on the line. The water company has men at work this morning repairing the break.

House Burned at Ellsworth

Damage of $400 Done by Conflagration Thursday
—Firemen Work Well

Late Thursday night a fire occurred at Ellsworth when House No. 5 in Row B was much damaged. The exact origin of the fire is unknown. The fire was well under way when discovered. An alarm was sounded immediately and the Ellsworth fire department did excellent work in controlling the flames. The total damage will be about $400. Much house furniture was destroyed.

MARIANNA SCENE OF MANY HOLDUPS

Crime Reported From Mining Section—Usual Method is to Beat Up Victim

With holdups, robberies, shooting affairs, speakeasy raids and other crimes against the law and order of the commonwealth, Marianna and vicinity is rapidly gaining in notoriety.

In the second daring holdup and robbery that has happened in that locality within the past three days, John Sargent, a young man who resided near there was beaten into unconsciousness and robbed about 10 o'clock Wednesday night, while on his way home from the Highland church. The highwaymen stripped Sargent of his coat and took his pocketbook.

Sunday night a foreigner was held by a lone highwayman and at the point of a gun was stripped of his outer clothing and shoes. He was forced to wander home in that attire.

Some time Friday night entrance was gained to the poultry pens of J. N. Hazlett and about 20 of his famous stock of Dark Cornish fowls that are bred from a foreign strain taken. They are valued at $350. Legs of chickens that bore Mr. Hazlett's bands were found in Ten Mile creek.

By means of a ladder and the prying open of a window, a Marianna clothing store was entered and a quantity of wearing apparel taken.

Saturday night shortly before midnight Cedric Segosky, was held up by three men near Daisytown. He was shot and left lying in a dying condition in a field. Bloodhounds followed a trail through Ellsworth to Cokeburg.

BELGIAN AFFAIRS ARE DESCRIBED

Letter From Woman to Brother Here Contains
Story of Conditions

ARRIVES UNCENSORED LOSS NEARLY $10,000

First-hand information of affairs in Belgium that unlike some or all of the news dispatches and most letters is not censored, has been received by J. J. Boerens of Fallowfield in a letter from his sister, Mrs. Remy Vandermoortgate of Sottegen, which is not far distant from the Belgian city of Antwerp. This is directly in the part of Belgium where there has been some of the heaviest fighting and death and devastation has been everywhere noted, while the iron hand is felt. Mrs. Vandermoortgate says in part:

"October 1.—The newspapers are under censor and do not disclose much. What we know is that the Germans are not gaining and that the allies are holding steadfastly. You have no idea of what the Germans are doing with our country. Last Saturday a good farmer's wife returned from the market at Alcost. She was living in a nearby village to us, Hillegem. The Germans who were hiding along the road behind a hedge shot and killed her. She was the mother of two small children.

"We had to lodge yesterday the vicomte re Spoelberge and wife, whose castle at Louvain has been burned down. Both work under the Red Cross. They told us that here where we are it has been fairly calm yet. They have seen the destruction of Louvain, Haalen, Malines and Termonde. Houses are ransacked and everything thrown on wagons commandeered first for that purpose. Then systematically and scrupulously every house is fired.

"Here they tell us that Americans—at least the larger part of them—are siding the Germans. Well! It is easy, sitting at their fireside, peaceful with all the world. But let them come after the war is over, visit our devastated country and listen to the unheard of atrocities, then what will they say. Suppose it happens that one among the many Belgians is unable to withstand abuses of his family and revolts. Would not any American do the same?

"October 8.—The roar of the cannon we hear far and near all the time. We are more or less used to that. Last Friday night we were awakened during the night—and this is not the first time—by quick firing. The Germans blew up the railroad to Ghent near here. At Welden they fired on a train and killed a woman. Communications with Ghent are again re-established."

Mrs. Vandermoortgate described the leaving of her daughter for college in England and mentioned that college men of the classes of 1914, '15 and '16 in Belgium are forced to report to German military authorities at fixed dates. If they do not report, they are classed as deserters, she says. The purpose is to prevent the youths from joining the Belgian army. So far, she says, herself and family have been fairly fortunate.

Her husband left with the daughter for England, and this is what Mrs. Vandermoortgate says: "I will be all by myself, after all, at the mercy of God. Besides what is the use. Since we cannot any longer defend

MONESSEN HOTEL IS MUCH DAMAGED

Severely From Fire on Thursday Night

ARRIVES UNCENSORED LOSS NEARLY $10,000

A part of the Westmoreland hotel was destroyed by fire of unknown origin Thursday night at a loss of from $5,000 to $10,000, practically covered by insurance.

The fire was discovered at about 9 o'clock in an addition of the hotel recently built. The Monessen volunteer fire department was called to the scene, but had hard work controlling the fire owing to its location. They had to chop holes through the walls of the building proper to get to it. It took fully two hours to get the conflagration under control.

While the cause is unknown it is supposed that crossed electric wires started the fire. J. J. Golden is the owner, having recently acquired the hotel by purchase from William Heron. The hotel is one of the leading hostilities in Monessen and is located on Third street and Schoonmaker avenue.

EVANGELISTS TO COME HERE

The First Christian church of Charleroi has just completed negotiations with the Mingos Evangelistic company to hold a series of gospel meetings in Charleroi, beginning about February 15 of next year. This will be one of the largest companies of evangelist that has ever been in Charleroi.

There are seven members in the company as follows: Rev. John Mingos, evangelist; G. Pencrook, Rockwell, musical director; Rev. W. E. Bilyew, assistant evangelist; P. S. Wight, superintendent of boy's work; H. J. Bray, superintendent of personal work; Luella M. Mingos, superintendent of women's meetings; Miss May Chester, instructor of converts. A men's quartet is made up by the company also as follows: W. E. Bilyew, first tenor; P. S. Wight, second tenor; G. P. Rockwell, baritone and H. L. Bray, basso.

The company has a record of having influenced over 12,000 decisions to date, and is known as one of the greatest companies in the Christian denomination.

BINGVILLE SOCIAL HELD AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

A Bingville social was held at the First Christian church by the Christian Endeavor society Thursday evening. The Sunday school room was transformed into a rural district with the country store as the center of attraction. Those attending were attired in the latest Bingville fashions. During the evening a short literary and musical program was rendered. The proceeds of the social will be used in the purchase of hymnals for the church.

HIGH SCHOOL TO PLAY WASHINGTON

Hot Game of Football is Anticipated on Local Lot Tomorrow

Saturday afternoon the Washington school football team with a rep as long as a man's arm, will be here to meet the Charleroi high school eleven in a battle that will begin at 3 o'clock on the local field. That there will be things going on is a certainty, for the Washington high school bunch is composed of real contenders for the football championship title.

Coach S. R. Grimm will start his regular men in the game, but will not play them throughout because of the approaching struggle with the Monongahela high school on Thanksgiving day.

The Thanksgiving day game is the game that is looked forward to by locals, and they have been practicing diligently. With what results remain to be seen. Monongahela is confident of winning the game, but Coach Grimm is not making any claims.

It is probable that a large crowd will go to Monongahela on Thanksgiving afternoon. The game will be capably conducted or there won't be any game, for no chances will be taken anywhere by anybody. The rivalry is too keen.

MINERS ASK AID IN WAY OF WORK

An appeal has been made to the people of western Pennsylvania for aid from a source close at hand. The miners, who through no fault of their own, are in dire need. They work rather than charity, if it is possible. They are asking aid for themselves and their families to save them from starvation.

Eclipse Local No. 354 of the United Mine Workers of America of Ross has issued an appeal in the form of a set of resolutions, adopted November 11, which calls attention to the conditions under which the miners and their families are living. The appeal says the miners have been "happily" against hope that the mines which have been shut down since June last would resume operations, and that it would not be necessary for them to ask for aid. The shut down has been caused primarily, the appeal says, by the lack of water necessary to ship coal down the Ohio river. The Southern markets and to some extent by the war in Europe.

It is asked that all donations be sent to Leroy R. Bruce, secretary-treasurer of the relief committee, Rossco, Pa. The appeal is signed by the following officers of Eclipse local committee: Robert Stephenson, Jr., George Brewer, Jr., Richard Dowler, Al O'Presky, Thomas Collins, Jesse Morgan, Charles Dean, John Beins.

SOMETHING NEEDED AT HOME

All eyes in America naturally turn to Europe at present. The people hereabouts are of course deeply interested in the great struggle overseas and are anxious to see the coming of peace, says the Washington Reporter. Frequent calls are being made for America to lend assistance in one way or another for the betterment of the situation abroad and these calls are being answered by the people of the country.

But it does seem folk hereabouts should save a little of the sympathy and worry they are devoting to Europe and make use of it right here at home. They may be carnage and chaos in Europe. But there is something almost as bad in the way of law violation right here at home.

The Washington county jail has at the present time close to 200 prisoners within its grim walls. It was necessary this week to call in a judge from a neighboring county and to place in operation three courts in order to handle the great mass of criminal business before this term of court.

Do not those conditions suggest that something is radically wrong right here at home? There may be trouble in Europe but the facts indicate that all is not so well as it might be right here in Washington county. Here is a little problem at our own doors for those who have so many solutions of the European problem.

CHRISTMAS GIVING SUSTAINED

The practice of Christmas-giving, however much it may be abused at times, springs from the most admirable motives that influence human conduct. Granted that to a few it is a prefatory obligation, discharged with reluctance, to the vast majority it is a delightful duty, bringing with it full realization of the truth that it is more blessed to give than to receive, says the Pittsburg Gazette Times.

But from the purely practical standpoint of the greatest number the abandonment of Christmas-giving cannot be justified in view of the widespread hardship it would entail here at home. The custom provides profitable employment for a multitude of persons not only during the special season of cheer, but throughout the year.

The exchange of gifts gives a wholesome stimulus to business in general. It has come to play an important part in our commercial system and one which is reckoned on long in advance by enterprising business men.

True charity begins at home. It needs not stay there permanently for

BENTLEYVILLE

Installs Signalling Device.

The P. R. R. company has installed a new signalling device at the dangerous turn at the foot of the steep incline on South Main street. For a long time this place has been considered a rather dangerous one. On several occasions people have almost lost their lives due to the quick turn in the railroad. The new device is directly below the crossing and will warn an approaching train if any one is crossing the track. Sometime ago the railroad company placed a man at the crossing to keep tally of the number of pedestrians crossing the track in twenty-four hours. The citizens did not know whether or not there had been sufficient crossings to insure a signalling device. However they were surprised when the company erected signalling mechanism. It is not known whether the company will place a guardhouse at the street.

NOTHING BETTER FOR WEAK WOMEN

"I Never Spent Any Money That Did Me So Much Good as That I Spent for Vinol."

Bellefontaine, Ohio.—"I wish every tired, weak, nervous woman could have Vinol for I never spent any money in my life that did me so much good as that I spent for Vinol. My nerves were in a very bad condition, making me very weak, tired, and worn out and often drowsy headaches. I had tried cod liver oil, doctor's medicines, and other preparations without benefit.

"One day a friend asked me to try Vinol. I did and soon my appetite increased, I slept better and now I am strong, vigorous and well and can do my household work with pleasure."—Mrs. J. F. LAMBORN, Bellefontaine, Ohio.

Nervous, weak, tired, worn-out women should take Mrs. Lamborn's advice and try Vinol for there are literally thousands of men and women who were formerly run-down, weak and nervous, who owe their good health to Vinol.

It is the medicinal, tissue building elements of the cod's livers, aided by the blood making, strengthening influence of tonic iron, contained in Vinol, which makes it so efficient in all such cases. Piper Bros., Druggists.
